Ethics requirements - Protection of personal data

Copies of ethical approvals for the collection of personal data by the competent University Data Protection Officer / National Data Protection authority must be submitted

The University of Bordeaux has reached the French National Data Protection Authority (CNIL) in the person of Ms. Chantal Durand, to make sure that the project was within the scope of the French law and the European Data protection Directive.
No further adjustment was required from the CNIL following the review.
The CNIL did not deliver any official approval nor certification to confirm its approval.

All consortium partners have reached the National Data Protection Authorities in their respective countries to ensure full compliance with the European Directive for Data Protection and its national law.
